URW acquires 38.9% stake in URW Germany JV from partner CPP Investments for 3.254 Mn URW stapled shares

Unibail-Rodamco-Westfield (“URW”) today announces that it has acquired a 38.9% stake in URW Germany GmbH and its related entities (together “URWG”) from its joint venture partner Canada Pension Plan Investment Board (“CPP Investments”). The acquisition is an off-market transaction, in the context of an existing shareholders’ agreement and increases URW’s stake in URWG to 89.9%. Both partners retain the option to transfer the remaining 10.1% of CPP Investments’ interest to URW in 2025 for a cash consideration of up to €65 Mn.

This acquisition is financed through the issuance of 3.254 Mn new URW stapled shares, representing approximately 2.2% of URW’s post-execution fully diluted share capital. These shares will be provided to CPP Investments as consideration for their contribution in kind of the 38.9% stake in URWG.

URWG owns five shopping centres in Germany: Minto (Mönchengladbach), Höfe am Brühl (Leipzig), Palais Vest (Recklinghausen), a 50% share in Paunsdorf Center (Leipzig), and a 20% share in Gropius Passagen (Berlin). URWG also holds €416 Mn in cash¹, including the €238 Mn net cash proceeds from the recent sale of Pasing Arcaden (Munich), as well as the fee business activity for third-party assets in Germany.

This transaction is EPRA NTA² neutral for URW and improves its proforma IFRS LTV³ by c. -20 bps, whilst increasing its cash position and its optionality on these five German assets. The transaction has no impact on URW’s 2024 AREPS guidance.

This transaction does not affect other joint ventures and co-investments between CPP Investments and URW, including Westfield Stratford City, Westfield Centro and some assets in the US.

Pursuant to French legislation, the transaction appraisal documentation includes an opinion confirming the fair value of the exchange ratio.

¹ Proforma as at September 30, 2024.

² Proforma as at June 30, 2024.

³ Proforma as at June 30, 2024, including the disposal of Pasing Arcaden.
